Wayne Owers

PGA Head Golf Professional
Class AAT, Level 3 Coach

Wayne turned professional in 1985 at Flackwell Heath Golf Club under the professional guidance of Brian Plucknett. He was one of John Jacob's finest golf coaches. Wayne joined the Downshire Golf Complex as the Head Professional in 1995.

Wayne is regarded as one of the best instructors in Berkshire. He has a vast knowledge of teaching skills spanning 23 years. This includes coaching people of all ages and disabilities.

Wayne has a great passion for coaching and believes everyone can play golf, he quotes "No 2 swings are the same", so he tailors a swing to suit the individual and works with their natural ability.

Keep the golf swing simple is Wayne's motto, so every one can have success at this great game.

Martyn Billers

PGA Level 1 Coach

Martyn has been part of the Downshire team for five years, working his way through from Sales Assistant to Golf Coach. During this time he has recently graduated from University with a degree in Sports Management, and has qualified as a PGA level 1 coach.

Throughout his amateur career, Martyn experienced regular events on the county circuit, which included representation. As a junior, Martyn claimed several titles including open events and Club Champion. Martyn qualified for the Men's Championship of England three times in the last four years, and capped his amateur career by qualifying for the Amateur Championship. Martyn is a very keen 'oncourse' learner sharing his experiences and continues to play on a regular basis. When coaching, Martyn focuses on the development of junior golf, as he feels that these are the people for tomorrow's sporting future.
