

The rules are as follows –

- Riders must descend feet first
- Riders using the Boa Constrictor must descend feet first and lying down
- Non - swimming children may only use the Python slide when accompanied by an adult.
- The Anaconda and Boa Constrictor slides may only be used by competent swimmers
- Riders must wait for the green light to signal before starting to descend
- Under 8's must be accompanied by an adult
- Chain riding is not allowed
- Standing or kneeling is not allowed
- Intentional stopping in the slide is not allowed
- Loose fitting jewellery and spectacles must be removed before riding a slide
- Pregnant ladies must not use the slides
- Do not ride the slides when suffering from any heart, spinal or nervous disorder, or physical injury which may cause harm to you (the rider).
- Anti social behaviour will not be tolerated
- Clear the Splashpool as soon as possible after exiting the slide.
- Alcohol is strictly forbidden in the pool area and members of the public who we believe to be intoxicated will be asked to leave.
- Queue for the correct slide no swapping allowed
- Only ascend the flumes tower stairs seven at a time when the light goes green in flume tower walkway.